

Textbook Publishers

Because the articles in the Management and Business Review deal with pressing issues and leading-edge research, they will be of great interest to all students in management and business. These articles also constitute a major resource for teaching in management and are therefore natural supplements to business textbooks.

Unlike some journals, which charge additional fees for classroom use, MBR will make its articles freely available for use in degree program classes at any school whose library subscribes to MBR. It may, however, take a little time for MBR to become available in all business school libraries.

We are therefore offering options for textbook publishers to make MBR available as a supplement to students using their books. Publishers may choose a rate of either two cents per student per semester for all students using books in management and business or one dollar per student per semester for only those students at universities without library access to MBR. Textbook publishers may want to begin with the former option and then switch to the latter when more libraries have subscribed to MBR.
